

Christian Counselling Services is seeking applications for the position of: Registered Marriage & Family Therapist

Christian Counselling Services (CCS) has a 40+ year history of providing excellent professional counselling services in the community. As we prepare for the transition to a new location where we will be co-located with a medical practice and psychiatric professionals, we are seeking to expand our clinical team to include a Registered Marriage and Family Therapist.

As the successful applicant, you will be responsible for the provision of counselling services to individuals, couples, and families, and associated case management duties. There will also be the opportunity to facilitate therapeutic groups in your areas of expertise. And, on occasion, you will have the opportunity to represent CCS at various events that build our community networks and partnerships.

You will join a dynamic and thriving clinical team and have the opportunity both to learn from and contribute to others' learning in the context of formal and informal case consultation. CCS is committed to training future generations of practitioners and we often have practicum placements that require supervision.

The successful applicant will possess the following credentials, training, and experience:

- Completion of the minimum of a Master's degree in Marriage and Family Therapy
- Current registration with the SKMFT, AAMFT, or similar professional association
- Christian faith that informs personal life and professional practice
- Understanding of the integrative process as it relates to faith and practice
- Understanding and agreement with CCS' mission, philosophy, values, and objectives
- A minimum of three years' experience is preferred
- Certification with First Nations and Inuit Health will be considered an asset

Remuneration and benefits are negotiable depending on experience. CCS offers a Health and Dental Benefits Package and is committed to professional development.
